

PARTICIPATE IN A PhD RESEARCH STUDY

Do these statements apply to you?

- ✓ I am 65 years or older
- ✓ I was sexually abused as a child (when under 16)
- ✓ I live in England
- ✓ I am happy to share my life experiences & life story with Clare Camm (researcher) in three interviews

Taking part in this research:

- Interviews can be in-person or on Microsoft Teams.
- Share your life story and life experiences, including whether you feel the sexual abuse has influenced your life or not.
- No requirement to speak about the abuse itself, or anything you do not wish to share.
- Create a timeline, using words, your own photographs and/or other items to 'map out' your life to help you share your story.
- Your details will remain confidential and anonymous.
- Vouchers are provided for each interview. For in-person interviews, travel costs are reimbursed for travel within a 30 mile radius of Leeds City Centre.

I'm Clare Camm a Counsellor & Psychotherapist researching the life stories and experiences of adults age 65+ who were sexually abused as children. For more information I have created three short YouTube videos:

Introduction to Clare

<https://youtu.be/aADnI3j6efI>

Why is this research needed?

<https://youtu.be/ZFz2LYwVOEc>

What would taking part involve?

<https://youtu.be/71BUISNSX2I>

To express your interest in taking part please click on the link below (or copy into your internet browser) or scan the QR code:

<https://app.onlinesurveys.jisc.ac.uk/s/humanities-and-social-sciences/expression-of-interest>

